THE GREAT DESIGN ISSUE

P. E. Guerin

Designer Donna Livingston prizes the "exceptional craftsmanship" of the furniture pulls made by P. E. Guerin. Founded in 1857, it's the oldest decorative-hardware firm in the United States. The Louis XVI pull comes in various finishes.

Ball-Nogues

"A featherweight rendition of a black hole," is how Los Angeles architects Benjamin Ball and Gaston Nogues describe their Maximilian's Sebül. The temporary installation in tinted Mylar was displayed at L.A.'s Materials & Applications.

Dutch Bicycle Company

The Woody

Nearly half of Amsterdam's commuters travel to work by bike. Bringing this tradition to the United States is the Dutch Bicycle Company. Hand-built of cherry and black walnut, the Woody is one example of its specially made bicycles.
